FAITH FORMATION IS: TOGETHERNESS

Faith Formation can happen in Sunday School or Bible Study, but it can also be grabbing a coffee with a friend and reflecting on life with one another.

Choose a question below as a starting point to see what God is up to in the lives of those around you. This might be a conversation with a friend over lunch, a phone call with a parent or grandchild, or with someone in the pew next to you at church.

Where have you seen beauty lately?

When was a time you felt the presence of something bigger than yourself?

When have you felt deeply loved?

What breaks your heart in the world?

Where do you need peace in your life?

Who is a role model in your life of faith?

What ordinary activity or action brings you joy?

What is a hope you have for your future?

What is a burden you'd like to let go of?

Where do you experience peace in your life?

Faith Formation is the practice of bravely walking with others through the depths of loss and the heights of joys. Through faith, we navigate these highs and lows of life through union with God, strengthened by the presence of Jesus in His death and resurrection. When we pause in our everyday experiences, we are open to the divine among us.
