

A GUIDE TO HIDDEN FIGURES

"Every time we have a chance to get ahead, they move the finish line."

"I'm not gonna sit here and pretend like I don't have the same intelligence as a man."

Characters

- Katherine Goble Johnson
- Dorothy Vaughan
- Mary Jackson
- Al Harrison
- Vivian Mitchell

Themes to pay attention to:

- Justice and Equity - Does God call us to stand with those who are treated unfairly?
- Made in The Image of God - Every person, regardless of race, gender, or role, is equally valuable and gifted.
- Speaking Truth to Power - What does faithful courage look like?

Guided Questions

Where do you see God at work in this story?

Even in injustice, how do the characters reflect courage, wisdom, and love?

How do faith and justice connect? What does Scripture say about standing up for what's right and making space for the marginalized?

Who inspires you in this movie? Why?

What does this movie teach us about how we treat people in school, sports, or church?

How can the church today be a place that supports people like Dorothy, Katherine, and Mary?

What do you think your gifts are? How might God be calling you to use them?